

Voices: School chaplain law sneaks in partisan ploy

February 7, 2024

Retired Texas prison chaplain Michael Maness raises questions about the school chaplain law and the organization behind it.

Letter: SBC presidential nominees

February 7, 2024

A Baptist Standard reader urges messengers to the 2024 SBC annual meeting not to give into to efforts to move the convention further right.

Commentary: Pray for and support Baptists in Ukraine

February 7, 2024

“We are asking God to allow Ukraine to remain free to preach the gospel unhindered, making the most of the many gospel opportunities we have here now.”

Guest editorial: The pastorate is a full life

February 7, 2024

Pastor Ron Session shares the trials, sorrows, tedium, joy, sacredness and privilege of being a pastor—God’s servant and Christ’s ambassador.

Voices: Mental health care needed for small town ministry

February 7, 2024

Small town ministry comes with its own set of challenges. Accessible mental health care can help ministers and their families face them.

Voices: Leadership in the age of

AI

February 7, 2024

Joshua Longmire explores some benefits and challenges of AI for leadership and recommends basic guiding principles.

Letter: Opposition to SWBTS ads in Baptist Standard

February 7, 2024

A Baptist Standard reader expresses his displeasure with Southwestern Seminary ads in the Baptist Standard and calls Texas Baptists to respond.

Commentary: AI imagines Trump and Biden as buddies

February 7, 2024

Some AI-generated images of Trump and Biden as friends spurred Karen Swallow Prior to think about the perils and promises of AI.

Editorial: Lament is a proper response to SBC news

February 7, 2024

SBC news has not been heartening this week, and not just for Southern Baptists, but for all followers of Christ. Lament is a proper response.

Letter: Editorial: Is religious liberty for Christians only?

February 7, 2024

A Baptist Standard reader responds to Editor Eric Black's editorial critiquing some Christian nationists' view of religious liberty.

Voices: Ministry in a fractious

and fearful world

February 7, 2024

How can pastors lead people who feel they are under existential threat and the stakes in this year's elections could not be any higher?

Voices: Spiritual formation is part of the Great Commission

February 7, 2024

"The calling of every Christian person is to become more fully conformed and united to Christ." This is what spiritual formation is about.