

Guest Editorial: Keeping Jesus Right-Side Up

August 22, 2017

Just prior to closing the door, I noticed it. "JESUS" was upside down.

---

Commentary: Religious liberty for all

August 22, 2017

Evangelical Christians have not lost their mind, but they have clearly lost their memory. A recent survey found only 2 percent of evangelical Christians indicated the Bill of Rights made America great.

---

Commentary: White supremacy at odds with Scripture; time to actively reach across racial

divides

August 22, 2017

Texas Baptists' Christian Life Commission issued a statement condemning "the hateful and violent ideology and actions" white supremacists displayed in Charlottesville, Va.

---

David Currie: 'Doing what I was gifted to do for Baptists'

August 22, 2017

This week's profile of Texas Baptist ministers features David Currie, former executive director of Texas Baptists Committed.

---

Analysis: Future Shock

August 22, 2017

Watching my grandkids laugh, explore and have fun, I shake my head and wonder where this culture of ours will take them. Do we realize how fast the future is rushing to meet our posterity, and us?

---

Voices: Whom Would Jesus Take Out?

August 22, 2017

When Christians fall short in measuring our theology against the teaching and life of Jesus, then we can be found guilty of using the Bible for our own objectives.

---

Voices: Colin Kaepernick and the hypocrisy of image

August 22, 2017

Our positions of power and privilege are to be used to transform society. There must be a willingness to risk it all for what is hard yet right.

---

Voices: Living in Two Worlds

August 22, 2017

The people I talked to this week didn't understand why my wife and I paid more for our groceries. In American society, saving money is a high cultural value. In the kingdom of God, respect for persons and compassion are higher values.

---

Commentary: What is wrong with white Christians?

August 22, 2017

This isn't meant to simply be a provocative question. A new survey from The Washington Post and the Kaiser Family Foundation offers the latest dispiriting news about the troubling state of white Christianity.

---

Ken Hall: 'We are best when we act as a movement of God'

August 22, 2017

This week's profile of Texas Baptist ministers features Ken Hall, former president of Buckner International.

---

Letters: Immigration reform

August 22, 2017

This week's letter to the editor responds to immigration reform.

---

Commentary: Christian, did the news out of Charlottesville make you sick in your soul? It should

August 22, 2017

Racist protests are not morally equivalent to counter-protests on behalf of racial equality and civil rights. (Column by Marv Knox in The Dallas Morning News)