

IN FOCUS: To whom much is given ...

August 14, 2008

The resources God has entrusted to Texas Baptists may be unprecedented.

RIGHT or WRONG? Applause

August 14, 2008

A case can be made for and against applause during a worship service..

Quotes in the news

August 14, 2008

"I heard myself saying a lot: 'God, you can't ask this of me. You can't ask this of my family. This is too much. We can't do this.'" - Steven Curtis Chapman.

Texas Baptist Forum: Baylor constituencies

August 14, 2008

Now Baylor University's regents have wounded a second president.

Second Opinion: Texas literacy a glass half-full

August 14, 2008

According to the U.S. Department of Education, Texas ranks 47th in literacy. But the glass is half full—really.

EDITORIAL: Baylor future rests in regents' hands

August 14, 2008

No new president can direct the Baylor dissonance until the board orchestrates harmony. Bringing the Baylor family back together should be Job 1, because nothing else will matter if Baylor tears itself apart.

IN FOCUS: The heart of Texas Baptists

August 14, 2008

What is at the heart of Texas' Baptists? What makes us unique? What makes us strong?

DOWN HOME: High gas prices & marital bliss

August 14, 2008

Joanna thinks I drive too fast. In my defense, I blame Texas.

Quotes in the News

August 14, 2008

"I tend to hold to a relatively young-earth position, which means I would believe that dinosaurs were created on the sixth day of creation, which I believe was a 24-hour day in the relatively recent past, and so that means you would have had dinosaurs and human beings existing at least at the same time.”-Russell Moore

2nd Opinion: How is worship like flying a kite?

August 14, 2008

Freedom in worship can only be appropriately expressed as long as there's a string that connects us to the Guiding Hand who launches us.

Texas Baptist Forum: Proper Loyalty II

August 14, 2008

I do not know where the letter regarding “Proper loyalty” is coming from (July 21). Our country church regards their patriotism as a blessing under Almighty God—and still follows the age-old tradition of respect for our flag when it passes by.

RIGHT or WRONG? I feel guilty

August 14, 2008

My mother's Alzheimer's disease has gotten so bad her doctor says she needs to be institutionalized. But I promised her I never would put her in one of those places. So, I feel guilty. How do I find forgiveness for letting her down, since I can't really communicate at that level with her anymore?
