

Flight delay opens opportunity

December 27, 2011

Israel Mendez, a student at Texas A&M University - Kingsville, was part of the New York City GoNow Missions team that returned Dec. 21 from a week of ministry in the Big Apple.

As Mendez was attempting to fly out of San Antonio for New York, the flight was delayed several times, according to GoNow Missions ministry assistant Laura Howery.

Israel Mendez was part of the
GoNowMissions team in New York
City.

"In the midst of that, Israel got to share Christ with someone at the airport," she said.

He tells the story in the accompanying video clip.

Go Now Missions mobilizes students from Texas Baptist churches and Baptist Student Ministry to share the love of Christ across the world.
