

Voices: Great hope for holiday hurt

December 13, 2024

People hurt us. That is a simple fact of life. Ruth Cook offers a few things that have helped her through many years of prayer and struggle.

Voices: Immigration is an opportunity, not an invasion

December 13, 2024

A longtime Houstonian and Baptist minister sees immigration as an incredible opportunity—not an invasion—for the church, city and nation.

Voices: Walking like the Lord

December 13, 2024

Johnny Teague shares a scene he witnessed between a father and a daughter while out on a walk with the Lord.

Voices: U.S./Mexico border: A complex calling

December 13, 2024

The U.S./Mexico border is a more complex situation than most realize. Texas Baptists have a particular call to be involved there.

Voices: God can use Turkey

December 13, 2024

John was from a small town. He was good at football—really good—but God called him to do something else. So, he did, and it took him farther.

Voices: First holiday without a loved one

December 13, 2024

If this is your first holiday without a spouse or close relative, you are not alone. Ruth Cook suggests ways to navigate this grief.

Voices: Don't tolerate sexual immorality in the church

December 13, 2024

"Christians are not to tolerate sexual immorality among them and are to judge rightly against it with the power of our Lord Jesus."

Voces: El valor de las familias hispanas en el acogimiento familiar y la adopción

December 13, 2024

Albert Reyes, CEO de Buckner International, destaca por qué se necesitan familias hispanas que acojan o adopten niños hispanos.

Voices: The value of Hispanic families in foster care and adoption

December 13, 2024

Albert Reyes, CEO of Buckner International, highlights why Hispanic families are needed to foster or adopt Hispanic children.

Voices: How to be happy despite jarring circumstances

December 13, 2024

Jim Lemons uses the illustration of a bumblebee stuck in a jar to illustrate the importance of looking up to God if a person is to be free.

Voices: Marriage advice I treasure

December 13, 2024

Ruth and Joe married while he was in seminary. The early years were a struggle, but her mom's marriage advice proved really helpful.

Voices: Why Christians should pray for the president

December 13, 2024

Will we rise above political affiliations to embody what it means to be a Christian in a divided society? Prayer is one way we can.