

S1 E9: 'Freely We Have Been Given, Freely We Give' with John Barnard

July 8, 2020

John Barnard is a 46-year old skateboarder who loves Jesus. A Texan from day one, John and his family moved to Waco in 2016 to lead Middleman on a full-time basis after he served on church staff for 20 years. He listens to Lyle Lovett, takes cream in his coffee, and is crazy about his wife, Mandi. John wants to know if you're going to finish that taco and/or how much do you want for that old car in your driveway.
