

Evangelicals Deconstruction reconstruction?

ask:
or

October 26, 2022

A conference focused on deconstruction—examining core beliefs and often rejecting the conservative politics, sexism and racial divides for which evangelicalism has become known.

Joshua Fuentes: Redemption is Near

October 26, 2022

Joshua Fuentes, senior pastor of Crestview Baptist Church in San Antonio, described fig trees as easy, low-maintenance fruit trees to grow. (Luke 21:25-37)

Zimbabwe Baptist leaders killed

in auto crash

October 26, 2022

An Oct. 21 automobile accident claimed the lives of the longtime former president of Zimbabwe Theological Seminary, his son and the seminary's current president.

Voices: A pastor by any name is a pastor

October 26, 2022

Joshua Sharp argues Christians should reject the idea youth pastors, college pastors and other pastors are not “real” pastors.

TBM workers train in Israel; partnership enters next phase

October 26, 2022

Ten Texas Baptist Men volunteers took their expertise in mass feeding to Israel recently to learn how to provide those services in a culturally appropriate manner in Israel.

Long-tenured pastors in San Antonio area recognized

October 26, 2022

San Antonio Baptist Association recently recognized 19 pastors who have served 25 or more years at the church where they minister now, including six who have served 30 years or more.

Pastors seek to shape how members respond to Halloween

October 26, 2022

As millions of Americans celebrate Halloween, many Protestant pastors in the United States are encouraging their church members to respond to the holiday in specific ways.

Chaplaincy Relations Director Bobby Smith dies

October 26, 2022

Bobby Smith, founding director of Chaplaincy Relations with the Baptist General Convention of Texas, died Oct. 18.

Editorial: The problem with religious freedom

October 26, 2022

For all of its merits, religious freedom may have a significant drawback. Those who cherish the freedom shouldn't overlook the problem.

Seminary trustees told finances must be addressed

October 26, 2022

David Dockery insisted Southwestern Seminary is "not in a crisis," but he told trustees financial challenges "could quickly escalate to a crisis if we do not aggressively move to address them."

Jim Heiligman: Sharing Jesus

October 26, 2022

Jim Heiligman, senior pastor of First Baptist Church in Bryan, summarized his church's intentional rekindling of its relationship with Christ over a six-week period. (Luke 15:1-10)

Voices: Ten gains from the COVID-19 pandemic

October 26, 2022

Recovery often leads affected communities to feel stronger, more united and more content than they were before disaster occurred.