

Editorial: Let's work together to leave a better legacy

November 20, 2024

Bitter division is a large part of our Baptist heritage and legacy. To leave a better legacy, we're going to have to work together.

Voices: First holiday without a loved one

November 20, 2024

If this is your first holiday without a spouse or close relative, you are not alone. Ruth Cook suggests ways to navigate this grief.

Voices: Don't tolerate sexual immorality in the church

November 20, 2024

"Christians are not to tolerate sexual immorality among them and are to judge rightly against it with the power of our Lord Jesus."

Hedgepath installed as 14th president of Wayland

November 20, 2024

In a ceremony marked with tradition and faith, Donna Hedgepath officially was inaugurated as the 14th president of Wayland Baptist University, Nov. 18.

Convención receives major Lilly Endowment grant

November 20, 2024

Convención Bautista Hispana de Texas received a $1.25 million grant from the Lilly Endowment.

Voices: The value of Hispanic

families in foster care and adoption

November 20, 2024

Albert Reyes, CEO of Buckner International, highlights why Hispanic families are needed to foster or adopt Hispanic children.

Baptist ethicist provides guidance on AI in ministry

November 20, 2024

Artificial Intelligence already has outpaced the human ability to distinguish real from computer-generated images, audio or other media.

Individual approaches needed to engage Gen Z for Christ

November 20, 2024

Young people in Gen Z have little interest in religious systems and institutions, but they crave acceptance and meaningful connections, a campus minister and a college pastor told a Texas Baptist gathering in Waco.

Editorial: Partnership shows the BGCT's strength

November 20, 2024

Texas Baptists' past, present and future is built on partnership. It hasn't always been easy, but it has been and still is a great strength.

Texas Baptists panel discusses women in ministry

November 20, 2024

A panel discussion on the role of women in ministry closed out the Baptist General Convention of Texas annual meeting.

Keynote addresses focus on Jesus' kingdom agenda

November 20, 2024

Keynote speakers at Texas Baptists' annual meeting expounded on various aspects of Jesus' "kingdom agenda" as revealed in the Gospels.

Voices: How to be happy despite jarring circumstances

November 20, 2024

Jim Lemons uses the illustration of a bumblebee stuck in a jar to illustrate the importance of looking up to God if a person is to be free.