

Medical team serving migrants, refugees in Mexico

August 9, 2024

International Mission Board missionaries Charlie and Robin Janney coordinated an eight-person medical team who journeyed to Mexico's southern border to offer care to migrants, refugees and displaced peoples.

After controversies, SBC turns to a low-key leader

August 9, 2024

As he stepped up into the old-fashioned wooden pulpit on a recent Sunday, Pastor Clint Pressley wasted no time.

ERLC executive committee issues update on entity

August 9, 2024

An Aug. 2 statement from the executive committee of the Ethics & Religious Liberty Commission affirms the group's support for Brent

Leatherwood as president and leader of the Southern Baptist Convention entity, saying its work is more important now than ever.

Recap of discontent over SBC's ERLC

August 9, 2024

The SBC's ERLC has faced decades of discontent from Southern Baptists. Just ask former ERLC president Richard Land.

Queen's attorney petitions for release of materials

August 9, 2024

Matt Queen's attorney has requested the prosecutor release 'a limited number of documents' he believes supports Queen's defense.

In small-town Illinois, a little church says goodbye

August 9, 2024

First Baptist Church survived a tornado, church schisms and two worldwide pandemics in over 150 years of ministry in small-town Illinois.

Vietnamese Baptist gathering bolsters connections

August 9, 2024

The 39th annual meeting of the Vietnamese Baptist Union of North America drew more than 1,300 participants for worship, workshops, fellowship and business.

California Baptists cut staff, citing giving shortfall

August 9, 2024

The California Southern Baptist announced it had cut six staff jobs, citing an ongoing decline in giving.

Messenger motions deal with ERLC, censure, other issues

August 9, 2024

Messengers presented 50 motions at the 2024 Southern Baptist Convention annual meeting and acted on several, rejecting calls to abolish the Ethics & Religious Liberty Commission and censure Southern Baptist leaders.

North Carolina pastor Clint Pressley elected SBC president

August 9, 2024

Clint Pressley, a North Carolina megachurch pastor known for a conservative but even-keel approach to leadership and who does not wear jeans in the pulpit, was elected president of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Abuse reform now in the hands of Executive Committee

August 9, 2024

Leaders of a volunteer task force charged with implementing abuse reforms in the nation's largest Protestant denomination say they were given an impossible task. In the end, the task proved too much.

'The mission matters most,' Jeff Iorg tells SBC

August 9, 2024

Jeff Iorg was ready to retire from the presidency of Gateway Seminary and spend more time with family when he was approached about seeking the presidency of the Southern Baptist Convention Executive Committee.