

A closer look at BGCT institutions

June 6, 2008

The Baptist Standard is cooperating with the Texas Development Officers Association in using the Standard's back page to inform, educate, and inspire Texas Baptists about the spectrum of ministry needs and philanthropic tools available to donors. Whenever a Texas Baptist institution publishes an ad on the back page of our print edition, we'll reproduce the full ad on our website and provide a link to resources that donors can take advantage of.
Click to see full-sized ad from 4/14/08 print edition.	 Click to see full-sized ad from 6/09/08 print edition.	 Click to see full-sized ad from 6/23/08 print edition.
Children at Heart Ministries Based in Round Rock, Texas, this ministry provides a constellation of services for children. www.childrenatheartministries.org, and Children at Heart Foundation.	Dallas Baptist University This Dallas-based university has been offering quality education opportunities for more than 100 years. www.dbu.edu and Gary Cook Graduate School of Leadership	Baptist Retirement Community This San Angelo ministry has been providing quality housing and health care for senior adults and those with special needs for 50 years. www.bapmem.com
 Click to see full-sized ad from 9/1/08 print edition.	 Click to see full-sized ad from 9/15/08 print edition.	 Click to see full-sized ad from 9/29/08 print edition.
Wayland Baptist University This Plainview school has been educating students for a century, and West Texas and the world is a brighter place for it. All the while, Christ has been at the forefront. www.wayland.edu	Baylor University Baylor University students work to educate themselves not only for their own benefit but so that might bless people in their neighborhoods, across the nation and around the globe. www.baylor.edu	Hendrick Health System Hendrick Health System trustees approved Project 2010, the largest expansion in the institution's history. Construction is set to begin in late fall 2008 www.ehendrick.org

✘ Click to see full-sized ad from 10/13/08 print edition.	✘ Click to see full-sized ad from 11/10/08 print edition.	✘ Click to see full-sized ad from 11/17/08 print edition.
HSU's Logsdon Seminary Hardin-Simmons University's Logsdon Seminary in Abilene is establishing the T. B. Maston Center for Christian Ethics. Maston taught ethics at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary for 40 years until he retired in 1963, and was a strong proponent of racial justice. He died in 1988. www.hsutx.edu/	The University of Mary Hardin-Baylor The University of Mary Hardin-Baylor in Belton was chartered in 1845 by the Republic of Texas. It is currently ranked in Tier One of the U.S. News & World Report as one of America's Best Universities in the Master's West Division. www.umhb.edu/	South Texas Children's Home South Texas Children's Home Ministries in Beeville offers basic dependent residential childcare, family counseling services, job training for women, and international childcare and humanitarian efforts. www.stchm.org